

COURT BATTLE TO GET MONEY

Buyers Land Purchase Is Not Easily Dismissed.

MANDAMUS SUIT IN SUPREME COURT

Expected by Officials Refusing To Pay.

The Board of Administration Presents Vouchers Totalling $385,580, Made Payable to J. J. Stafford, of Marion.

Columbus, Feb. 16.—By a vote of 12 to sixteen, the house is believed to have killed the Harding state constitutional bill by sending the measure to the agricultural committee, when the bill was called up for a vote on a question of passage. This action was taken on motion of Representative Harding. It is believed the bill would have been defeated if a vote had been recorded on the question of passage.

On motion of the author, the ruling bill, seeking to regulate employment of strikebreakers, was recommended to the committee on agriculture.

The Taft emergency bill authorizing the issue of deficiency bonds to meet current expenses, having passed both senate and house, now is to the governor. Although passage of the bill authorizing transfer of $500,000 from the state highway fund to the common school fund, in anticipation of school revenues to be paid in June and disbursed in August, the house rejected the measure practically worthless by defeating the emergency act. The measure can not become law in time to serve its purpose.

The house defeated the Atwood farm license bill by tabling it, as it came up for passage. Unanimously, the senate committee on bereaved institutions agreed to indefinitely postpone their action on the Miller bill, which seeks to repeal the law under which the Hueyruis site was purchased by the state board of administration, for the proposed state institution for feeble minded.

This subject, however, is expected to reach the state supreme court. The board of administration has presented to State Auditor Tracy vouchers totalling $385,580, the purchase price for the land, made payable to J. J. Stafford, Marion real-estate agent. Tracy said he won't pay unless advised by Attorney General to do so. In view of Governor's opposition to the purchase, it is expected that the attorney general will advise the state auditor not to pay. Stafford is expected to file a mandamus suit in supreme court in effort to get the money.

Taxation Matters. Columbus, Feb. 16.—Taxation matters are being considered today, by the officials.

The Griswold debt-limitation resolution and bill and the Taft bill, proposing for temporary suspension of limitations of the Smith-one-percent act for the purpose of affording temporary financial relief to cities, scheduled to be called up for passage in the house, this afternoon.

The state tax commission is expected to revoke its order for a repeal of real estate in sixty counties. Governor Davis has announced that he does not believe reappraisal will be made before a scientific levitable taxing system has been decided out. The governor said that counties where a reappraisal has been made, if it is too high and sends to for a reduction of taxation, the proper county officials should immediately make a downward evaluation.

Senator Davis and the members of the extreme taxation committee, called by him, are conferring at Governor's office, today, in an effort to work out a plan which will be the basis for a permanent tax system to be enacted into law by the state legislature.

J. J. Tabor, Barnesville, master of the Ohio State grange, is chairman of the committee. Other members: O. E. Brodfute, Xenia; C. J. Goff, Chillicothe; F. H. Goff, Cleveland; W. W. Knight, Toledo; C. J. O. Cleveland; O. E. Hawk, Madison; W. O. Thompson, Columbus; and William Cooper, Cincinnati. All are here excepting.

Price Movements. New York, Feb. 16.—Price movements of a mixed character at the close of the stock market. The movement of the specialties market was mixed, while the leading stock issues were in supply.

Only two stops between the starting and stopping point had been chosen in the state of Texas. The first stop being at either Houston or Dallas and the second at El Paso.

DANGER SIGNAL HOISTED TODAY

Federal Reserve Board Governor Warns Congress.

POINTS OUT SEVERAL FINANCIAL PITFALLS

Traces Commercial Reactions in Country.

Financial Upheavals of World Leave the United States the Strongest Nation in Point of Money on Earth.

Washington, Feb. 16.—Congress was today warned that the government's credit must be conserved and the basis of American prosperity protected, if European economic pitfalls are to be avoided. The danger signal was hoisted by Governor W. P. G. Harding, of the federal reserve board. Governor Harding submitted to congress his annual report upon the operations of the federal reserve system. He traced the commercial reactions of the past and present, the upsets due to the war load now being borne by the government.

Governor Harding told congress that although the entire world has been shaken by commercial and financial upheavals, with disturbances still pronounced in many countries, the United States is much stronger in financial resources and "much more self-contained," today, than any other country on the globe.

"But, however great the economic strength of the United States should be, it should be remembered that the country's expenditures during the war and the very profound modifications which have occurred in its economic system have had such far-reaching results as to make it imperative that the utmost care be taken to conserve our credit and protect the basis of our prosperity, if we are to avoid the extreme conditions which prevail in other countries," said Harding.

Citing the financial chaos now existing in many countries, Governor Harding said the solvency and financial stability of some of them depend in large measure upon the United States.

Points the Way. Governor Harding thereby pointed the way to a more vigorous handling by this government of some of its foreign debtors. His intimation was strong that the great need abroad at the moment is the adoption of national measures of "self help."

Tracing the steps through the acute stage of transition from "war-time" delirium to normal conditions of peace, Governor Harding observed that the United States has suffered least of all world powers. The effects of readjustments, he said, have been more drastic in other countries, notably European nations where inflation of bank credit and currency was more pronounced than in the United States.

Business in the United States has begun to adjust itself to new conditions, he said and is preparing to proceed upon "sounder and saner basis."

EMERGENCY TARIFF BILL

Occupies Attention of the Senate Today

IS BEING FORCED TO A FINAL VOTE

Many Amendments Are Calling for Action.

Republican Leaders Using All Pressure Possible To Get the Measure Out of the Way. Friends Are Confident.

Washington, Feb. 16.—Once again the emergency tariff bill, staggering under the weight of "fifty-seven varieties" of amendments, engaged the attention of the senate today.

Senator Penrose, Republican, Pennsylvania, professed the utmost confidence in the fulfillment of his prediction that the bill would be passed by tonight.

Senator Underwood, of Alabama, the Democratic minority leader, was not so sanguine. He said the measure would "probably" be passed by tonight.

It was the intention of Senator McCumber, Republican, of North Dakota, to keep the senate in session until midnight, if necessary, in order to force a final vote, he announced.

Many amendments are yet to be acted upon before final vote can be taken and some Republican leaders were exerting every possible pressure to get rid of the bill in the hope of breaking the existing legislative jam and thereby secure early action on some of the still pending appropriation bills.

Real Progress. Washington, Feb. 16.—The senate made real progress in its consideration of the Fordney emergency tariff bill. It adopted four of the nine remaining amendments which had been recommended by its finance committee.

Among the amendments accepted by the senate was the substitute sugar schedule proposed by Senator Smoot for that agreed upon by the committee. The Smoot amendment would place the tariff at one cent a pound in addition to the present duty of the same amount, while the committee amendment to the house bill would have added approximately three cents a pound to the present rate.

The other amendments adopted by the senate would provide rates as follows: Butter and butter substitutes, eight cents a pound; cheese and cheese substitutes, twenty-three cents a pound; fresh milk, two cents a gallon, and cream five cents a gallon.

Some house tariff framers have under consideration an additional tax on imported goods into the production of which child labor has entered.

WEEDING-OUT CONFERENCES

President-Elect and Party Managers Meet.

CABINET SELECTIONS OCCUPY ATTENTION

No Announcement Expected Before March 3.

It Is Believed Harding Has Decided on Several Members of His Official Family—Some of Cabinet Possibilities.

St. Augustine, Fla., Feb. 16.—The conferences in progress this week between President-Elect Harding and Republican party managers here, constitute the final weeding-out process in the cabinet garden.

While it is not virtually certain that there will be no announcement of the new cabinet until March 3, and quite possible not until March 4, the president-elect hopes, within another week, to have matters adjusted that he could make public his selections, if such a course were deemed expedient. There is no indication, however, that such a course will be considered advisable.

As matters stand today those about the president-elect believe that if he were confronted with the task of naming immediately the members of the official family he would name Charles Evans Hughes, to be secretary of state; Harry M. Daugherty, to be attorney general; Will Hays, to be postmaster general; Andrew Mellon, to be secretary of the treasury; John W. Weeks, to be secretary of agriculture and Senator Albert B. Fall, to be secretary of the interior. And there they stop. The three remaining posts—navy, commerce and labor—are still very much up in the air, according to those about the new president.

May Be Secretary. Governor Frank O. Lowden, of Illinois, may be the secretary of the navy. John Hays Hammond may be secretary of commerce and James Duncan or James Davis, may fill the labor portfolio, but there is little to indicate that the president-elect has made any definite decisions regarding them.

So far as Mr. Harding, himself, is concerned, he has indulged practically no cabinet talk, other than to say that this man or that man has been strongly recommended. He has conferred in the morning and goaded in the afternoon and meanwhile, watched the reaction of the various names proposed.

Today, Mr. Harding had appointments scheduled with Alfred H. Smith, president of the New York Central railway; Colonel Arthur W. Woods, former head of the New York police department; T. V. O'Connor, president of the Longshoremen's union and George Sylvester Viereck, former head of the German-American alliance.

It is understood that Smith took up with President-Elect Harding the financial conditions of the railroads and stressed the need for congress immediately voting them the government guaranty funds. This bill, making available these funds, had struck a snag in congress and the railroads are insistently urging action.

Colonel Woods came to St. Augustine at Mr. Harding's request. It is understood. He has been suggested as possible assistant secretary of war. He filled a similar position during the war and has been strongly recommended to reassume those duties in the new administration.

POLAND NEEDS ACTUAL PEACE

Country War Swept During Six Years.

PADEREWSKI TALKS OF THE SITUATION

Poland Menaced by Starvation and Typhus—Americans Doing Relief Work.

New York, Feb. 16.—"As long as there is a threat of warlike action against us by the Russian Bolsheviks, it will be difficult for Poland to recuperate economically and politically," Ignace Paderewski, world-famed pianist-politician, who was Poland's first premier, told the International News service in an interview. "Peace may be signed by the Moscow government, but we have learned that Lenin and Trotsky are treacherous," he said. "Actual peace is what Poland, which has been war swept for six years, needs, today, above all else."

Paderewski dwelt on the lack of food, especially milk for babies and bread for adults which exists in Poland, today.

"The bread is very poor and a man gets but one pound in four days. Sand is often found in it."

"Sand? Why sand?"

"Makes the bread weigh more," said the famous pianist, sadly.

"Because of the lack of sufficient food, there is considerable dysentery among the population."

"What progress is being made in the fight on typhus? There were some 250,000 cases of that disease in Poland a year ago, I understand."

"The number of cases is about the same," was the answer.

"The chief work in holding this scourge in check is being done by American sanitary and relief agencies, under the direction of the league of nations."

HAVE NO FEARS OF REVOLUTION

British Do Not Think Germans Will Revolt.

GERMAN POLITICAL LEADERS UNCERTAIN

Doubtful of Result of Allied Indemnity Demands.

English Leaders Believe German Delegates Will Agree to Demands in Conference Held in London, on March 1

London, Feb. 16.—British officials have no fears that the allied indemnity demands will lead to a revolution in Germany, despite the pessimistic forecasts of German political leaders.

Even should German unrest be fomented to a dangerous degree and the Monarchists and former adherents of the ex-kaiser attempt to take advantage of it, the allies will not seek to reopen the question of bringing William to trial before an international tribunal.

This information is secured by the International News service from an official source—Evans Davies, parliamentary secretary to Premier Lloyd George.

"British officials do not fear a German revolution as a result of the size of the indemnity the allies decided to impose upon Germany," declared the official. "The German delegates are coming to the London conference, March 1, with full powers and we have every reason to believe that everything will be settled in a satisfactory manner."

ENRICO CARUSO IS NEAR DEATH

Priests Administer Extreme Unction, This Morning.

GREAT SINGER IS FULLY CONSCIOUS

Bears Up Bravely in Farewells to Friends—Victim of Virulent Pleurisy.

New York, Feb. 16.—Enrico Caruso, who has cheered and entertained thousands with his golden voice, which has been termed the most perfect tenor ever known, was hovering between life and death today.

With five doctors in attendance and all the known remedies and scientific aids to combat death at their disposal, Caruso, who is often has taken the tragic and heroic parts in the mimic life of the opera stage, was fighting for his life, this afternoon.

Apparently, his first grapple with death, early today, when the last rites of the Catholic church were administered, left him very weak, for, during the morning, he again lapsed into semi-consciousness at intervals and did not recognize his dearest friends.

The statement issued, at noon, by the attending physicians, indicated that they were not over confident of their patient's condition, which they frankly admitted to be unsatisfactory.

The doctors were encouraged, if not surprised, however, by Caruso's recuperative powers, which enabled him to take some slight nourishment, this morning, after rallying from what was officially termed "a very severe collapse." They hoped this improvement might continue.

However, it was necessary to administer oxygen again today.

Caruso's fever was high and this, following the strain of a six-weeks' battle against suppurative pleurisy, was further sapping at his vitality, now ebbing towards its lowest point.

Mrs. Caruso and a few of the singer's most intimate friends were in the sick chamber, today, keeping vigil.

Imperatively Ill. New York, Feb. 16.—Enrico Caruso, the famous grand opera singer, who is critically ill of complications following a virulent attack of pleurisy, was resting as easily as possible, this morning, it was announced by the attending physicians.

Caruso suffered a sharp relapse, early today and two priests—the Rev. Father Joseph Concedo and the Rev. Father E. E. Moynihan—were called into the sick room to administer extreme unction. The last rites of the Roman Catholic church were performed when the great tenor seemed to be dying.

Although his vitality was fast ebbing, Caruso was conscious and was

WOMEN BURY BODY IN SECRET

Too Poor To Buy a Coffin, They Hide Their Sorrow.

DISAPPEARANCE OF AGED WOMAN SOLVED

Shallow Grave in Flower Bed Gives Up Secret.

Chicago Mother and Daughter Investigated by Police—Declare Grandmother Dies a Natural Death Last June.

Chicago, Feb. 16.—After hours of digging, reporters for the Chicago Herald-Examiner, at daybreak this morning, unearthed the body of Mrs. Nancy M. Chamberlain, ninety-one years old, from its burial place in the garden in the rear of an apartment building, where the aged woman had lived with Mrs. Ruth Townsend, her daughter and Miss Marian Townsend, her granddaughter.

Earlier in the night, Miss Marian Townsend had confessed that she and her mother had buried Mrs. Chamberlain in the garden. Miss Townsend said her grandmother had died a natural death.

The finding of Mrs. Chamberlain's body followed a search that has baffled the police and detectives since Monday. Until she told her story to a Herald-Examiner reporter, Miss Townsend and her mother, also, had steadfastly refused to tell anything whatever about what happened to Mrs. Chamberlain. Both women would only say that Mrs. Chamberlain was "happy in love."

Suspecting that the body of Mrs. Chamberlain was concealed somewhere near the building where the Townsends had lived, police, yesterday, began digging in the yard. Miss Townsend, however, revealed that the body had been buried in a flower bed and it was there that the body was found, early today.

"We did not kill grandmother," Miss Townsend said. "She was not murdered. She died a natural death on a cot. We buried her under a geranium in the rear of the apartment building where we lived. Our mother was the highest in the world. The death of my mother's mother, not the method of the laying away of her remains, could interest nobody in the world except us two."

"Grandmother died one day in June. I do not remember the exact date. Mother and I were both at her side when she died. I went out and bought some geraniums. Then, under cover of darkness, we dug the grave in the middle of our beautiful garden plot. We carried out the remains and placed them in the grave."

"We had neither coffin nor burial permit. Then we covered the body and placed the geranium over the improvised grave."

"To us she is not dead and just buried."

Miss Townsend declared it was poverty that caused her and her mother to bury Mrs. Chamberlain in secret.

Coroner Peter Hoffman declared he would make a full investigation of the case. The vital organs of the dead woman, he said, might be removed and analyzed in an effort to determine the exact cause of her death. Hoffman arranged to impale a coroner's jury at once.

A police investigation of the case has revealed that Mrs. Townsend and her daughter, who is an accomplished pianist, were believers in occult forces and members of mystic societies. They are alleged to have been adherents of the "Mystical Fire cult," of the Rosicrucians and to have embraced the doctrines of Zoroastrian sun worship.

POPE BENEDICT MAY TAKE ACTION

Expected To Deal with Irish Problem in March.

Rome, Feb. 16.—Pope Benedict XV, may deal with the Irish question at a public consistory, in March. It was reported in circles close to the Vatican, today.

According to previous information, only one consistory was to be held next month, but it is now understood that two consistories will meet at the Vatican, one private for the creation of new cardinals, the other, public. The date of the secret consistory, if held, probably will take place about March 10.

The view is held that all the new cardinals created will be from outside of Italy and it is certain that one of them will be an American, although his identity is not yet absolutely certain, so close is the veil of secrecy thrown over such matters by the papal court.

M'GANNON ON WITNESS STAND

Recounts Story of Shooting of Harold C. Kazy.

FORMER JUDGE IS COOL AND CALM

Answers All Questions Fully and Without Hesitation—Appears Confident.

Cleveland, Feb. 10.—William H. McGannon, defendant charged with having fired the shot which resulted in the death of Harold C. Kazy, his friend, last May, today told in open court his story of the events of the night of the shooting, as well as his connection with the testimony given by Miss May B. Neely, star witness for the state, in his first trial, and whose sensational refusal to testify in the present hearing astonished court, prosecution and defense.

Coolly and calmly, answering all questions fully, the chief justice of the municipal court, while apparently feeling his anomalous position as a defendant, appeared confident of the outcome. He laughed and joked with newspaper men before he took the stand at 9:25 and answered every question propounded by his counsel fully and apparently willingly.

He told of having met Kazy, in connection with whose death he is now under trial, at Forty-Sixth and Euclid, the night of the shooting. From there, according to his story, they drove to Willowbury, returning to the city, they stopped at a restaurant in or near Collingwood, where Kazy got a late dinner and the judge drank two "ponies" of brandy, the only intoxicant, he said, which he had that night.

When they arrived at Ferguson's, they stopped and here the judge met Joyce, with whom he was acquainted. Joyce, he said, was "under the influence of liquor." In Ferguson's office, where Joyce was in a state of diatribe, he saw a gun, which later disappeared.

The three—McGannon, Joyce and Kazy—left in McGannon's car at about 11:20, driving down Euclid until they reached Ninth street, where the judge left the machine.

McGannon then, according to his testimony, walked north on east Ninth to Superior, down Superior to the square, crossing Euclid and taking a car there, arriving home about 1:05, going immediately to bed.

The judge told of his visit to Ferguson's the next day, the purpose being "to find out about the gun" he had seen the night previously. While there, Joyce entered and said, addressing the defendant and Ferguson: "I'm going down to give myself up. They'll get me anyway," to which the judge, addressing Ferguson, says he replied, "That's the thing he should do."

Referring to the Neely testimony the judge denied that he had offered a bribe of $500, or any other amount but, on the contrary, asserted that Mrs. Louise Webb, sister of Miss Neely, the day before she testified before the grand jury, last November, asked him what could be done to prevent her testifying and stating that she was "losing her mind."

The witness said that he told her and later told Miss Neely that all she could do was to "testify and tell the truth," adding, when he talked to Miss Neely, "and you know what the truth is."

At 10:20, his direct examination was completed and Assistant Prosecutor James Cassidy began his cross-examination.

FOUR THREE-DOLLAR GOLD PIECES FOUND

By Stengel in Old Gun He Buys for $12.

Four three-dollar gold pieces, one bearing the date of the early fifties, were found in the stock of an old gun, a relic of civil war days, by F. A. Stengel, coin collector, while recently cleaning the gun, which he had purchased for $12. The coins were imbedded in the hatch of the stock with tallow and other than being tarnished were in perfect condition. Two of the coins bear the date of 1856, one of 1854 and one of 1858. A premium of $7.50 is paid for them, as they are no longer coined.

The gun was found by Samuel Rievel while moving a building on his farm seven and one-half miles southwest of Gettysburg and on the edge of the old battlefield. Beside the gun, which is a Sharp carbine, patented in 1852 and bearing the number 7543, were found the bones of a man and parts of a Union soldier's uniform. The gun was purchased by Dr. Stengel early in December from E. Clayton, a curio dealer in Philadelphia. The farm on which the gun was found originally belonged to Richard Holaway.

With Two State Speakers on the Morning Program.

Caledonia, O., Feb. 10.—[Special.]—The annual Farmers' Institute opened this morning in the town hall with W. D. Zinn and C. Henry, of Columbus, state speakers on the program for the morning session. He urged the boys and girls to stay on the farm, declaring that there were more opportunities in the vocation of farming now than ever before. He advocated the formation of clubs among boys and girls and said that 1890 had been offered as awards by the breeders of Marion township for competition in various clubs. C. Henry also gave a short talk, telling how boys and girls had helped save the farms.

Mr. Zinn and Mr. Henry are each on the afternoon program for addresses and music will be furnished by the Girls' High School Glee club. The institute will close tomorrow night with an operetta by the school.

SAYS MEN, NOT DOLLARS, ARE BUILDERS OF CITIES

Judge Roy H. Williams, of Sandusky, Speaks Today.

NOON-DAY LUNCHEON OF CRAMBER OF COMMERCE

Business Men Hear Plea for Cooperation on the Basis of Charity.

Development of manhood, leadership and ideals, and cooperation on the basis of charity in the sense of universal benevolence are the basic requirements for city building, Judge Roy H. Williams, of Sandusky, told members of the Marion chamber of commerce at their weekly noon luncheon today in the Y. M. C. A. building.

"Men, not dollars, make cities," Judge Williams said, "and when you develop manhood you are taking a big step forward in city building. The three immortal virtues, faith, hope and charity, are vitally essential to city building. And I do not mean charity in the sentimental sense, but in the sense of universal benevolence."

"The purpose of city building and a chamber of commerce is to make a city a better place in which to live. That accomplished, people will, of their own choice, come to your city and do away with the notion that you must pay money for factories to come to your city."

"City building is in its infancy and we are just at its threshold. What city tongue can not tell and pen can not write."

"But I have seen something of its accomplishments. Fifteen years ago my town of Sandusky was a dead one as towns go. It had no live chamber of commerce, but today we have a live organization and in a town of 35,000 people we have a chamber of commerce with 1,680 members."

"Something besides the accumulation of wealth and fame are necessary and one of the essential things in city building is quality. You are building for the future a place for future generations and to build successfully you must build a real city."

There was a large attendance at the luncheon, today being guest day. At the conclusion of the program J. Wilbur Crosby announced that the local cross executive committee has decided to establish a local clearing house where a man temporarily out of work can secure temporary employment and asked the cooperation of the chamber of commerce in making the move a success.

Mat Yulick, thirty, an Austrian, this morning went on trial for his life in the common pleas court for the murder of Elmer Edwards, twenty-eight, of Pawpaw, West Virginia. Shortly after court convened following the noon recess the panel of twelve tentative jurors was filed and the state and defense began exercising their peremptory challenges. The jury was secured at 2:30 this afternoon.

Twenty-four of the thirty-six veniremen were used before the panel was filled. Six of the eighteen men examined before noon were excused on account of conscientious scruples against infliction of the death penalty, two because they stated they had formed an "unalterable opinion" regarding the guilt or innocence of the defendant and one on account of physical inability to serve. Charles E. Unsworth, of Big Island, was excused Tuesday evening on account of sickness and John H. Stoll and Michael Hannagan drawn to replace him.

The panel, as it was made up before either side had exercised any peremptory challenges, consisted of Frank Mautz, T. W. Roberts, J. F. Rutting, Jacob Carey, Harry Lust, H. O. Denton, E. K. Clark, C. W. Black, George Hatcher, Elmer Waterling, C. E. Coon, Fred Hoch and A. J. Jones. G. W. Black, Frank Mautz and T. W. Roberts later were excused, two of the defense and one by the prosecution.

Yulick was indicted by the January grand jury for murdering Edwards, a fellow-workman, at the plant of the Columbus, Delaware & Marion Electric company at Scioto. Both were employed by the Sanderson & Porter Construction company and it is alleged that, December 29, Yulick struck Edwards with a piece of gas pipe, inflicting wounds from which the man died at the City hospital the following day.

CITY IN BRIEF

Cooper W. R. C.—Plans were made for a joint patriotic meeting with the members of Cooper Post No. 117, G. A. R., to be held next Monday at the meeting of the members of the Woman's Relief corps, Tuesday afternoon, in the Junior Orphan hall. There was a good attendance at Tuesday's meeting.

Wonders of Wireless—Charles Keeler, eighteen-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Keeler, of Summit street, who has been successfully operating a wireless station at his home the past year and a half, Tuesday evening between 7 and 8:30 o'clock overheard a conversation between two business men in New York City and a man near Newfoundland, Canada. After the men had finished their conversation the New York man gave a musical concert for the benefit of the Canadian. By means of an amplifier the sound of the music could be heard very plainly in all parts of the station here.

Rev. Dr. Bierman Honored—Rev. F. W. A. Bierman, pastor of St. Paul's Evangelical church, at Taylor, Pennsylvania, and acting pastor of St. Paul's church at Scranton, Pa., was honored during the past few weeks by Hamilton College of Law in Chicago and the Central university in Indianapolis. Hamilton college conferred on Rev. Dr. Bierman the degree of bachelor of laws while the Indiana university bestowed on him the degree of doctor of philosophy, both being degrees that are conferred only in recognition of achievements. Rev. Dr. Bierman was pastor of the Marion church about twenty years ago and is quite well known to local residents.

American Legion Meeting—George T. Geran explained the rights of the former service men under the civil service laws at the regular meeting of the McGinlay Post, American legion, Tuesday evening at the armory. He stated that any man who applies for a civil service position on the classified list is exempt from taking the mental examination. He also said there are at least two patrolmen to be appointed in this city and on appointment for the postoffice within a month.

Commander G. V. Paschall explained the workings of the Societe Americaine de 40 et 8 chevaux and the charter application list was filled and a waiting list established within ten minutes. The meeting adjourned early on account of the basketball game with the Bucyrus legion team.

Judge Mouser Speaks—Judge Grant E. Mouser delivered an interesting address on "Lincoln" at the meeting of the north State Street Community club, Tuesday evening, in the school building. Other talks were given by A. W. McCullo, president of the Forest Lawn community club, and by T. A. O'Leary. Both talks were on Community work. Plans were discussed for beautifying the grounds and building at the North State Street school. A piano solo by Dorothy Clemens was followed by a song by the pupils of the fifth grade and a recitation, "Our Flag," by Evelyn Burke. "The Value of the Flag" was the subject of a recitation by Mae McClure and was followed by two songs, "My Valentine" and "George Washington," by the pupils of the first grade. Alice Shelton sang a song, "Lincoln," after which Carroll Schmidt gave Lincoln's Gettysburg address. A social hour followed the program.

Caught in Plans—James St. Clair and Michael Schoe were arrested in the office and storage room of the Marion Distributing company at the rear of the Hinaman livery barn on north Main street about 5 o'clock Tuesday evening by Officer Coffey. Hearing the breaking of glass, a man in the vicinity notified the officer who investigated and caught the two men in the place. They had only been in a few minutes and had not secured any foot. Entrance was gained by breaking out two windows, the first window being barred by cases. About two weeks ago the place was entered and some cigars and drinks were taken, the place being used by the company as a storage place for such things. When arraigned before the mayor this morning, St. Clair entered a plea of not guilty to breaking into and entering the place and his hearing was set for this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. Schoe showed that he was familiar with count proceedings and after the reading of the affidavit he waived examination. The mayor bound him over to the grand jury and fixed his bond at $2,000.

Licenses to marry have been issued to Gordon E. Dennis, Marion, and Miss Mary Opal Rossey, Marion; David H. Knickel, Marion, and Miss Anna M. Smith, Marion.

AGED MAN STRUCK BY INTERURBAN CAR DIES

John P. Brookins Succumbs to Internal Injuries.

Prospect, O., Feb. 10.—[Special.]—John P. Brookins, aged eighty-five years, who received internal injuries last Thursday when he was struck by a C. D. & M. car, north of Prospect, died this morning at 12:30 o'clock.

Where Express Employees Take Up Various Questions.

E. J. Saiter, local agent for the company, gave an account of what has been done locally since the last meeting. His talk brought out many points to prove the value of the meetings. Letters from the Armour Packing company and the route agent were read by C. B. Werts these letters being highly complimentary. Mr. Leighty gave some extracts of praise received from President Taylor and L. M. Shadaker. Route agent, gave an interesting reading on the subject, "Knowing and Holding the Job." After a song a general discussion was held and the employees adjourned to meet in about one month.

INCIDENT OF SWELL DAY VERIFIES AN OLD ADAGE

Which Is That "It's an Ill Wind."

It's an ill wind that knows nobody good, according to a fair young pedestrian on west Center street today noon. "Oh, there goes my hat right in the water," she exclaimed in a half-disgusted way to her husband as a gust of wind blew her headpiece into the gutter and then rolled it halfway across the street, where it lodged against the curb.

"I can never wear that hat now; it is a perfect wreck, and anyway it's an old one," said the young woman to her husband.

"Well, since you wanted a new spring bonnet, anyway, now is a good time to buy one," he said.

And so the happy couple passed on down the street, looking for a place to buy.

Yes, today was another swell day, though in the afternoon it did cloud up and threaten rain. But the day was mild as spring.

J. R. MULLINS DECLARES HE IS ROBBED OF $1,200

But the Authorities Are Doubting Thomases.

FARMER CLAIMS TWO HIGHWAYMEN DO TRICK

Mullins Makes Conflicting Statements and Police Are at Loss To Account for His Yarn.

J. R. Mullins, who resides on the west Harvey farm about four miles north of the city, called at police headquarters shortly after 9 o'clock Tuesday evening and reported that he had been robbed of $1,200. Mullins informed the police that as he was coming from Scott Town, where he had just borrowed the money he claimed was stolen, two men placed an obstruction in the road about three miles from Marion on the Keeton pike.

Mullins stated that when he stopped his machine the two men grabbed him and pulled him from the car. In doing this he said they tore one button off his overcoat, two from his under coat and one from his vest. They then relieved him of his money watch and chain and he was permitted to get in his machine and continue the journey.

Doubt His Story.

Police Chief J. W. Thompson's doubts as to Mullins being held up were increased by his finding the four buttons from Mullins' clothes in a pile on the floor of the car. The sheriff was notified and, with his deputy, a trip was made to the scene of the alleged hold-up.

On investigation at the scene the officers found Mullins' watch at the side of the road and it was still running. The officers then accompanied Mullins to Scott Town, where they called on the party whom Mullins stated had loaned him the money. This visit brought out the fact that Mullins had not secured the loan from the party he claimed and as a result more doubt was added to his story of losing such a sum.

Philadelphia Lawyer Needed.

This morning Mullins was taken into conference by Chief Thompson and City Solicitor G. T. Geran with a view to determining his object in claiming to be robbed of such a sum. To the chief Mullins left the impression that he was robbed, but only relieved of his watch and to the solicitor he made a statement that he was held up as he had first reported.

SILVER STREET MAN NABBED AS FORGER

James Monroe To Be Arraigned Late Today on Charge.

James Monroe, of Silver street, was arrested Tuesday afternoon by Officer Cusick on a warrant charging him with issuing and attempting to pass a forged check "in the sum of $21 on P. L. Roush at the Miller market, Tuesday noon. When Roush went to call up the bank to inquire as to the validity of the check, Monroe departed from the place and left the check. The check was made payable to the account of Ray Davis.

Monroe was arraigned before the mayor, this morning, and claimed Davis had given him the check in payment of a loan. He stated he did not know Davis, but believed he lived at Delaware. Monroe's hearing was set for this afternoon.

LOCAL TEACHERS VOTE TO SUPPORT OHIO LEAGUE

Which Is Fighting for Tenure Office Bill.

Insultation that teachers affiliated with the Ohio League of Teachers are Bolshevistic in tendencies brought forth a storm of protest at the Harding High school building.

The teachers met to reconsider a motion to support the Ohio League of Teachers which, it is claimed, is the only organization that has up to the present time really represented the teachers.

The motion under consideration authorized payment by each teacher of $1.75 to be used to defray the expenses of the league. The law which it is at the present time fighting is known as the tenure of office bill. This bill has been called the civil service of teaching, for it provides that once teachers have passed the necessary examinations they may not be removed except when disqualified by age or incompetency.

F. W. Englehart, originator of the Ohio League of Teachers and until put at the head of it, a teacher in the Cincinnati high schools, was bitterly attacked. The attack seemed futile, for a second vote on the motion to support the league was carried and the result was decisive.

JUDGE OZIAS BOWEN A LINCOLN ELECTOR

An Interesting Story of the Days of Long Ago.

It will interest many Marion people to know that the late Judge Ozias Bowen, of Marion, was one of the twenty-one Ohio electors who cast their ballots for Abraham Lincoln in Columbus. It appears that Saturday was the day set for casting these ballots in Columbus. In order to reach Columbus by Saturday, Judge Bowen had to leave Marion on Friday, going by way of Gallon. This, of course, was before the Hocking Valley railway and Shortline were built.

One of the original ballots is in the possession of the family of William T. Coggeshall, at one time United States minister to Ecuador, and former publisher of the Ohio State Journal. Mr. Coggeshall was a warm personal friend of President Lincoln. He died soon after the civil war. His daughter, Mrs. T. A. Busby, was born in Springfield, this state, on the day Lincoln read for the first time in his cabinet the proclamation emancipating the Southern slaves, and her father, who had the privilege of hearing that first private reading, named his new daughter Emancipation Proclamation. She was called Freddie for short.

POLICE ARE SEEKING MOTIVE FOR TRAGEDY

Newton Man Kills a Victim and Shoots Himself.

Newton, Illinois, Feb. 10.—Police today are seeking the motive for a tragedy that has aroused this section of the country and which resulted in the death of P. H. Robertson, wealthy real-estate man and Charles Sutton, a grain broker. Robertson shot and killed Sutton and then shot himself, the wound proving fatal four hours later.

The only clue to the motive for the shooting has been found in the hysterical sobbing of Sutton's wife. "I knew it would come," she sobbed. "He's been brooding over it for weeks."

A bill for $175 as the county's share toward the county farmers' institute for the season of 1920-21 was received from the college of agriculture by County Auditor B. C. Decker this morning. This money will be sent to the dean of the college of agriculture.

not suffering acute pain, according to his secretary, Bruno Strato. Mrs. Caruso was with her husband and the singer's son by a previous marriage, Enrico Caruso, Jr., has been hastily summoned from his school in Culver, Indiana.
Caruso bore up bravely and feebly said farewell to friends who were admitted to the sickroom.
Just before daybreak, the patient seemed to rally and to brighten.
Three doctors were in active attendance at the bedside throughout the entire night and two others were in consultation. Oxygen was administered at regular intervals by Dr. Philip Horowitz, the regular physician of the Caruso family, assisted by his colleagues.
Caruso was originally stricken the night of December 9, while singing in "Pagliacci." Two operations were later performed and the lungs were drained. Both were said to have been successful.
Tender Farewells.
The chief fear of the doctors, it was understood, was for the patient's heart, which was said to have been weakened by the drain upon his vitality.
The scenes at the bedside during the night were marked by pathos. The physicians did not attempt to disguise from Caruso that death might come at any minute. After a brief lapse into unconsciousness, before midnight, Caruso was told that despite the stimulus of oxygen, he might not survive the night.
The tenor wearily asked that some of his "dear beloved friends" be summoned so that he might bid them goodbye. He asked particularly for Antonio Scotti and Fucito, his accompanist. When they entered the room, Caruso greeted them with a smile and feebly held out his hand. The friends could not conceal their grief, nor did they try to repress their tears as they clasped Caruso's hand and spoke words of cheer.

Asks Receiver For Maxwell Company.
Wilmington, Del., Feb. 16.—Charles J. True of Illinois has filed a bill in the federal district court asking for an injunction and appointment of a receiver for the Maxwell Motor company, a Delaware corporation, with business establishments in Ohio, Michigan and Illinois. True objects to the proposed plan of reorganization of the Maxwell and Chalmers companies.
Daniels For Wireless Control.
Washington, Feb. 16.—In a plea for federal ownership of all high power radio stations, Secretary Daniels, in a letter to Chairman Page of the senate naval committee declared that "if there is one thing in which there should be a monopoly it is a monopoly of the air, and this monopoly should not be given over to private interests."
Booze Shipment Seized.
Malone, N. Y., Feb. 16.—Concealed in ash barrels, more than 3,000 quarts of mixed brandies, gins and whisky, estimated to be worth from $50,000 to $50,000, were seized here by customs officials when they broke open a freight car at Malone junction. The car was said to have been loaded at Montreal, Canada. The officers refused to divulge the car's destination.
Bergdoll Probe Unlikely.

GOVERNOR GENERAL OF PHILIPPINES

Wood Is Slated for Position.
Fletcher To Go to Japan.
St. Augustine, Fla., Feb. 16.—Major General Wood will be appointed governor general of the Philippines to succeed Frederick Burton Harrison, it was learned today.
President-Elect Harding's disposition of this post indicates that the defense of the island outpost will be perfected, that its affairs will be more Americanized, and that there is little likelihood of the realization of the Philippines' dream of early independence.
The appointment is considered a happy one, as General Wood's qualifications as a colonial administrator long have been recognized. Under Mr. Harrison, it is reported to Mr. Harding, the islands rapidly have been going "native" and America has lost much prestige.
For another important far eastern post, that of ambassador to Japan, Mr. Harding is expected to appoint Albert Fletcher, former minister to Mexico, a Republican, and one of the Roosevelt rough riders. Mr. Fletcher has been on the Florida house-boat trip with Mr. Harding.

Mail Board Rulings.
Chicago, Feb. 16.—Officials of the Norfolk and Western railroad were upheld in 12 of 25 cases which have been pending before the railway labor board. The Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen was victorious in two cases, nine were thrown out entirely. Approval was given of the change in home terminal from Columbus to Portsmouth. The board also ruled that the rate of pay for baggage handling express is to be incorporated in the trainmen's schedules.

Work of Terrorists in Spain.
Barcelona, Feb. 16.—Statistics relative to terrorist outrages connected with labor agitation show that since June 1, 1919, 401 persons, comprising employers, managers of works, policemen and employees, were killed while 167 others were wounded. In the same period there were 11 bomb explosions, killing five persons and wounding fifteen.

DRAWING AND PAINTING MADE EASY BY USE OF LENS

Any one can learn to draw or paint. A child can learn as easily as he learns to read and write. Putting form and color on paper or canvas is only a matter of training of the eye, and such training can be easily acquired through an invention by Anson H. Cross, instructor at the Boston university art school. A pane of glass equipped with a split level and special lenses is the new device. After a few lessons with it a person of ordinary intelligence can draw without it. The lessons begin with drawing on the glass while the student looks at the model through the lens. The function of the lens is to bring color, light and shade into relief. After a little practice on the glass, sketching with a soft crayon, the student will become a keen enough observer to draw well on papers without even the old-fashioned measuring method. Mr. Cross spent twenty years studying in perfecting his device. The illustration shows Mr. Cross and a student using the device in sketching a model of Venus de Milo.

coming administration with regard to the question of repayment to the United States of the allied debt, will be set forth by President Harding in his first address to congress early in April.
The president-elect stated flatly that he would make no mention of this momentous question in his inaugural address, which is to be confined strictly to domestic matters.
Lamont's statement attracted particular attention because of his intimate knowledge of the Versailles negotiations and because his firm is the principal fiscal agent in this country for the debtor powers. Mr. Harding is understood to have discussed with him his own proposal for converting the debts into negotiable paper, but neither would comment afterward on that feature of the discussion. Lamont did say, however, he found the views of the president-elect sane and reassuring.
The president-elect finally reviewed his cabinet decisions with his campaign manager and prospective postmaster general, Will H. Hays. The conference, generally interpreted as conclusive evidence that the Republican national chairman is to become a member of Mr. Harding's official family, is understood to have covered every feature of the cabinet situation, as well as various questions of policy.

START BUILDING NOW
Building Demand Accumulates
Progress depends on building activity.
War and post-war obstacles have piled up a large accumulation of building projects. They cannot be completed in a few summer and fall months.
Business in general is sure sooner or later to revive, and the farmer to send his stored products to market. When both of either of these things occur the railroads again will have more than they are able to do. If everybody wants building materials, the farmer turns loose his products, and business in general quickens, all at the same time, a lot of people are going to be disappointed by delays in their work.
Right now labor, materials and transportation are available. Later, a congestion with its delays and losses may handicap building and increase its cost.

CENTER OF GRAVITY POWER PRODUCTION HERE

United States Geological Survey Director Asserts.

EVIDENTLY HAVING IN MIND C. D. & M. PLANT

Mayor Andrews and Others Make Inspection Trip to the Scioto Power Site.

According to George Otis Young, director of the United States geological survey, Marion is the "center of gravity of all the power-producing plants in the United States." He made that statement in an address last week in New York City.

Director Young evidently had in mind when he said that the mammoth power plant now being erected by the Columbus, Delaware & Marion Electric company at Scioto, seven and one-half miles south of Marion. Late Tuesday afternoon, Mayor T. E. Andrews and City Solicitor George T. Geran, accompanied by A. F. Van Dine, general manager of the C. D. & M., and newspaper men, conducted an inspection of the plant.

Progress Is Rapid.

The new power plant is fast nearing completion. The whole plant will be under cover by March 10 and the building proper will be ready for occupancy about May 15.

When the new plant is completed there will be three floors of electric apparatus, station transformers, engines, out-going feeders and power measuring instruments. The plant will cost $1,250,000 instead of $1,000,000 as first thought.

The new power plant will have three boilers, each with 566 horsepower generating steam at a pressure of 250 pounds with a 200 per cent. superheat.

In an Emergency.

It will be possible to work the boilers 200 per cent. above rating in an emergency. The boilers are served by a coal bunker with a 600-ton capacity. It is located overhead in the east portion of the building.

The coal is brought in by tracks to the south of the plant and dumped as it is received from the mine into a pressure pit at the southeast side of the structure.

From here it passes to the crusher, where it is crushed to what is known as "pea size" and then carried into elevator buckets. It is spouted to the top of the building on a belt conveyor which traverses the entire length of the bunker and can be spooled at any designated place.

After the coal comes from the large bunker it goes into a hopper which is about ten feet long that is at the front of the boilers.

Rammed into Fireboxes.

It is rammed into the firebox by huge rammers. By using the pea-sized coal and efficient method of transporting the coal from the cars into the fireboxes, the new power plant will use only eighty to 100 tons of coal a day. This is just half that the present plant is now using. The coal is shipped directly from the mines.

On the northeast side of the plant a concrete floor has been laid for extension purposes. The space is large enough for one more unit and one more boiler.

One huge smoke stack cares for all the boilers. It is a self-supporting steel stack, fourteen feet in diameter and when completed it will be 275 feet high.

Now 240 Feet High.

At the present time it is 240 feet high. The stack is being put up in sections, each section being taken to the top by means of heavy steel ropes, donkey engines furnishing the pulling power. Three men are working on the top of the stack, riveting the sections together.

At the present time there are about 100 men working on the plant. About sixty of these men board and room at the lodging houses that have been erected for the purpose.

Today the site is a sea of mud, but the weather is ideal for progress.

Hentze, George Lashby and William Pace were appointed an executive committee to devise a plan to raise money on the class pledge to the church.

After the business a program was given opened by a song by the ladies of the class. Miss Minnie Hoover gave a reading, "Uncle Stevens' Perseverance," and H. Edmund Hill gave a talk on "Is This Old World Growing Better or Worse?"

Mrs. William Kellogg gave a reading on "People Will Talk," and Mrs. A. W. Leonhart sang "Not One Forgotten." After a reading by Mrs. Fred Upton, "How Deacon Adams Admonished His Son," an address to the class was given by L. D. Caspberry. Rev. J. D. Harding also gave a talk and at the close of the program a pickup supper was enjoyed.

Calvary Revival.

The large auditorium at Calvary church was filled last evening with the crowd of folks who came to listen to the old-time gospel in sermon, in song, and in testimony. The chorus sang "Hail Emmanuel," and Mr. Reep sang a solo entitled, "Could I Tell It." Three people presented themselves at the altar and sought the forgiveness of their sins. There will be services tonight at 7:30 o'clock. The pastor, Rev. C. L. Allen, will preach and Mr. Reep will sing.

WORLD EFFICIENT

The International Sunday School Lesson for February 20 is "The Wife and the Foolish Virgins." Matthew 25:1-13.

BY WILLIAM T. ELLIS.

General efficiency is a greater thing than any day than some other day. It is a quality which organized societies and movements wage war to get. It is the following: A man who does odd jobs about a work shop he was to appear on a given day to clean the shop and carry out ashes. He did a good job as stipulated; he never came when expected; nor did he do the substitutes we have had in his place. After a few days called on the employment bureau for a job, and asked for two or three more of his kind. I was given a report within a few hours as to when the boys would come. I am still waiting for a report, and for the boys! For a college student is quite as irresponsible as your negro casual worker.

Boys are little worse than a multitude of employed men and women. A week ago I urgently wanted the hundred China famine information pamphlets, for an unimportant purpose. After perusing telephonings and promises, got three hundred large posters; still further telephoning and telegraphing I got further assurance—but I am still waiting for the pamphlets, and Chinese are dying at the rate of ten thousand a day! These are merely near-at-hand familiar illustrations, such as persons could duplicate in daily experience, of the grave dangers of sheer inefficiency, and measure the warp and woof of our social fabric. What avails it to teach the boys and girls philosophy and history and mathematics, if we are not also teaching them how to be reliable and effective in the daily round of ordinary life? Why dress the wedding attendants in festal array, caroling silver lamps, if they have no oil for the hour of need?

A Parable of Preparedness.

Practical beyond words is this lesson parable of the wise and foolish virgins at the wedding feast. Before we pass to its spiritual symbolism, let us get hold of the surface teaching of simple, obvious preparedness. The charge is being made against more than one muddling government that it is as unprepared for peace as it was for war. It came up to great hours of duty and opportunity with empty lamps. Broadly surveying our present time the criticism may soberly be written that the world's leadership, its statecraft, economics, industry, education and religion, is not making ready for the era upon which mankind is entering. Opportunistic and obscurantist sit in the seats of authority. "Forward-looking" men and women seem rare in the high places. The great bulk of common folk seem more aware of the portents of our day than those whose business it should be to discern the signs of the times.

A friend, who is one of the real statesmen in the affairs of the kingdom of God told me that he has just returned from an international interdenominational meeting of the missionary officials, where he heard no word concerning the present crisis, no prophet says as to new duties, no concern for war-born conditions. Routine organization matters chiefly occupied the time of the meeting. That an hour of reconstruction is dawning for all the world at no time appeared throughout the meeting. The delegates carried empty lamps.

Gossians with Empty Lamps.

Every message that comes from the Near East tells terrible stories of the plight of the Russian refugees. Aristocratic ladies landed in the Gallipoli mud in the same satin slippers in which they had danced away the night before the evacuation of Crimea. Despite the grimness of warnings, the Russian anti-Bolshevik supporters in Sebastopol were unprepared for flight; now their suffering baffles our understanding.

In a still larger sense these Russian bourgeois are unready; they do not know how to take care of themselves in even the simplest ways. Their spirit is brave and optimistic, but the least of the Armenian peasants was better able to shift for himself during the deportations than these high Russian officers and their families. The particular blackness of the outlook of the Russian aristocracy consists in its being unfit for the emergencies of a stern world.

All these incidents but echo the lesson's primary warning. It is a word that comes with peculiar solemnity to parents and teachers. To be ready and alert for life, and whatever it may bring, is the only reasonable attitude of youth. Old-fashioned pioneer efficiency and self-resourcefulness, which made nations out of this North American wilderness are qualities supremely needed in our slack and careless times. Too many of us are more interested in the pay envelope than in the job. It is said that the swarm of place-seekers swooping down upon the new administration at Washington is stuporously overwhelming. Men want to attach themselves to a sure pay-roll, rather than to face the struggle of life.

Really strong personalities do not want safe and easy positions; they seek only a fair chance to serve the world for a reasonable return. The hero life cries, with the late Louise Imogen Guiney.

"A short life in the saddle, Lord, Not long life by the fire."

As To Modern Youth.

Safe guiders of youth will spare no pains to drive home the truth that this is peculiarly a time to make ready for life by real efficiency. Fit bodies, fit minds, fit spirits are as much a duty as they were for recruits in the army. All young people need graven on their hearts the motto of the Boy Scouts, "Be Prepared." No boy or girl is educated today who is not proficient in a knowledge of present world conditions, and in some trade or art or calling that will provide self-support and human service in whatever changed conditions may arise.

Let us develop a measure of pride in ability to do things and of contempt for the mere idler, the "lounge lizard" and "vampire" type of youth. A girl should be proud of her knowledge of needlework than of her familiarity with screen characters; of her ability to buy and cook and serve a good meal than of her skill at dancing. The boy who never dug a garden or mended the plumbing or cared for trees economically should be more ashamed of himself than the boy who never owned a tuxedo coat or dined in a city hotel or "touched" his "old man" for money to spend on cigarettes and sundries.

Ready For The Great Hour.

To be ready for life is also to be ready for death. Preparedness in small things is the sure way to preparedness for the large. Great hours come to those who are fit for the commonplace minutes. It was only a matter of lack of oil in their lamps—a trifling evidence of carelessness and provision—that hindered the foolish virgins from being ready for the great event of the wedding. To be fit for the day is to be fit for destiny; for no person can tell when his opportunity will arrive with a shout. "Behold, the bridegroom cometh!"

"If only we strive to be pure and true.

To each of us will come an hour, When the tree of life shall burst into flower.

And rain at our feet a glorious dowry Of something grander than ever we know."

Both ways of looking at the truth are right. To be ready for death is to be ready for life. To be ready for the bridegroom is to be ready for all lesser experiences. They who live as in expectation of Christ and of His kingdom, have their lamps burning for any other need that may arise. That is why the best general equipment for these portentous days that lie ahead of the world is a general turning toward the Lord and His will for us. God's men can meet man's emergencies. There is no lesser contingency that is not fully prepared for by being ready for Christ.

Don't You Know It Cannot Be Done?

Rheumatism Cannot Be Reached by Liniments and Lotions

Even if you have been fortunate enough to have some respite from the pains of Rheumatism during the past few months, you may as well be prepared for the annual struggle with the disease just as soon as cold weather returns.

No need to look for a cure for Rheumatism in the liniment bottle. The cause of this torturing disease is far below the surface of the skin, and requires thorough treatment.

If Rheumatism could be cured by the use of liniments, lotions and similar locally applied treatment, it would be a simple matter to conquer this disabling and painful disease. For liniment is one of the most plentiful articles obtainable.

But have you ever known of a single case that was cured by such treatment? Your own experience should prove to you that the best you can expect from such methods is some temporary relief from the agonizing pains. If you want to drive the pains away for good, and be freed from the shackles of the disease, you must realize that you must get rid of the cause of the disease, and not merely its symptoms.

Rheumatism is a sturdy foe, and it never uses gentle methods with its victims. If the disease were confined to the surface there might be some logic in expecting relief from its clutches by rubbing with liniments and lotions. But a disease that can cause so much pain and suffering is deep-seated and has its source far below the surface of the skin.

The only sensible treatment from which you can expect results is a remedy that goes deep down into the blood supply, and kills the germs that cause the disease.

S. S. S. is a wonderful blood remedy, and is the logical treatment for Rheumatism, because it promptly permeates the entire blood supply, and searches out and kills the disease germs. You can take S. S. S. with the assurance that you are not experimenting, for this fine old remedy has been in constant use for more than fifty years, during which time it has been giving splendid results. So you owe it to yourself to take S. S. S. without delay, and discard the use of local treatment that can do you no good.

By eliminating from the system the tiny germs that cause Rheumatism, you will be delighted to find that you have at last freed yourself from the shackles of the disease.

Write our medical department for literature and full advice about your own case. Address Chief Medical Adviser, 28 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

BUCYRUS LEGIONERS ARE WINNERS FROM MARION

Visitors Outclass the Locals in Armory Game.

MARIONITES START OUT IN FINE SHAPE LAST NIGHT

But They Fail To Keep Up Their Balance of Play—Are Swamped.

The Bucyrus American Legion basketball team surprised a large number of fans at the armory, Tuesday evening, by turning what appeared to be a sure defeat into a victory by a score of thirty to twenty-two. Regardless of the result the game was fast from start to finish. The local team started out in fine style and after several minutes of play Haflick started the scoring for Marion with a field basket. This gave the locals encouragement and by displaying some good passing, Farr edged four successive baskets. Pfeiderer then shot a basket for Bucyrus after which the locals made three. Then the game continued to the finish of the half with honors about even, the score at the end of the half being twenty-two to ten in favor of Marion.

Visitors Show Improvement. The local team did not look like the same team in the second half of the contest, while the visitors showed much improvement. The passing of the locals was wild and the players were in bunches on the defense. Bucyrus played a steady game and by fine teamwork in the last half, managed to score twenty points, scoring a number on sensational shots from hard angles. At the same time their defense was perfect and they held the locals scoreless during the half. The Bucyrus players followed up their shots at the goal in fine style and this worked to advantage. While all of the visitors played a big part in the victory, the work of Kull, the Bucyrus center, was the feature of the contest, being in nearly all of the plays and by his coolness he held the team together in fine shape and had them passing in true form.

Marionville Here. The Marysville team, one of the best in Central Ohio, will play the local team at the armory, Thursday evening, and the game should draw a large crowd. The line-up and summary:

Marion, 22	Pos.	Bucyrus, 20
High	l.f.	Pfeiderer
Parr	r.f.	Sharrock
Haflick	c	Kull
Smith	l.g.	Witter
Martin	r.g.	Mathews
Substitution, Ryan for Witter.
Field baskets, Parr 5, High 2, Haflick 1, Smith, Pfeiderer 4, Sharrock 4, Kull 4, Witter, Mathews; fouls, Ryan 2; referee, Burdette; time of halves, 20 minutes.

WITH THE PUGS

Is Promising.

New York, Feb. 16.—Sammy Sieger, Harlem featherweight, who recently stepped from amateur ranks to the professional ring, is looked upon as a promising contender for the title, today, following his fifteen-round draw with Billy Defoe, the crafty St. Paul pupil of Mike Gibbons. When the bout ended, the judges disagreed on a decision and Referee Johnny Harkoff sided with one of them in calling the bout a draw.

Last Night's Fights.

At New York—Sammy Sieger and Billy Defoe boxed a fifteen-round draw. Abe Goldstein earned a decision over Frank Daly in ten rounds. Fred Jacks, of England, and Earl Bird, of California, boxed a ten-round draw.

At Harrisburg—Bill Brennan knocked out Spike McFadden in three rounds.

DINNER ENJOYED BY MARION "AD" CLUB

President Advocates Advertising Specialists as Speakers.

Direct-by-mail advertising furnished the topic for an interesting discussion at the Marion Advertising club's dinner in the private dining room of the Busy Bee cafeteria, Tuesday night.

G. W. Fleming, of Marion, of the Burroughs Adding Machine company, told of the direct-by-mail advertising system followed by his company to supplement personal salesmanship. This was followed with a general discussion of the experience of different members in direct-by-mail advertising by retailers as a means of keeping in personal contact with customers, and a follow-up to newspaper advertising.
R. T. Lewis, K. W. Scheil and James Lingo were appointed by President C. W. McClain as a committee to take up with the board of directors of the chamber of commerce the matter of endorsing billboard advertising. In this connection Mr. Fleming suggested that in carrying out such a plan to advertise Marion, it would be profitable to decide upon certain lettering and a place for putting the name Marion on the boards.

President McClain in opening the meeting, urged the adoption of a policy of securing specialists in various lines of advertising to address the club at various times. No action was taken on the proposal last night.

ACCIDENT

Causes an Emarrassing Mo-

His Wife.

A fortnight ago when I was returning from my southern trip there was an accident on the road and I was compelled to spend the night at Westerville and thinking to make the best of it I looked up an old college chum there. He invited me to spend the night with him and his family. After dinner I thought it best to write a note to my wife as she was expecting me home earlier than I would then be able to get there—I asked Jim for a bit of note paper, whereupon every mem-

Feel Weak, Tired, "All Played Out?"

Does the least exertion tire you out? Do you feel "blue" and worried, suffer dragging backache, headaches and dizziness? Too many women blame so-called "female trouble" for this unhappy state. Instead of weak kidneys, which so often are the cause. You must act quickly to prevent more serious trouble. Use Doan's Kidney Pills. They have helped thousands of weak tired women. They should help you. Ask your neighbor!

A Case in Marion
Mrs. A. A. Schultz 165 Jefferson St., says, "A cold settled in my back and brought on kidney trouble. At times there was a pain that felt like a knife sticking in the small of my back. I was all worn out and my kidneys didn't act right. Mornings I suffered from pain in the back of my head. Doan's Kidney Pills gave me excellent relief."—Adv.

DRESS WARM AND KEEP FEET DRY

Tells Rheumatism Sufferers To Take Salts and Get Rid of Uric Acid.

Rheumatism is no respecter of age, sex, color or rank. If not the most dangerous of human afflictions it is one of the most painful. Those subject to rheumatism should eat less meat, dress as warmly as possible, avoid any undue exposure and, above all, drink lots of pure water.

Rheumatism is caused by uric acid which is generated in the bowels and absorbed into the blood.
It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and cast it out in the urine; the pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity.
In damp and chilly, cold weather
the skin pores are closed thus forcing the kidneys to do double work, they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate this uric acid which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles causing stiffness, soreness and pain called rheumatism.

At the first taint of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a tablespoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is said to eliminate uric acid and by stimulating the kidneys to normal action thus riding the blood of these impurities.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice combined with lithia and is used with excellent results by thousands of folk who are subject to rheumatism.—

NERVOUS TROUBLES

When the nerves get out of order neither the red nor the white corpuscles perform with necessary activity. Sufficient oxygen is not carried to every portion of the body for conservation of nature's energy.
This is the reason why nervous trouble makes people feel weak, run down and look so pale, and also why it makes them suffer so many different pains.

Redex not only relieves the brain,
but it also helps to form blood, which carries health and vigor to every tired and worn out organ in the body.

Redex has been particularly successful in all cases of nerve trouble, which shows their origin in any one of the following symptoms.
Broken and restless sleep; sense of fullness after eating; pains in the back; drowsiness, heavy feeling about the bowels; dizziness; constant feeling of being tired; loss of appetite, or a general run-down feeling.

Former nerve sufferers all over the country sing the praises of Red-ex in thousands of letters of testimony. Just try Redex, yourself, and note how much better you feel after taking it.

Redex is on sale at Schmidt's and all leading druggists in Marion.—

HOT, DIZZY FEELING

Atlanta Lady's Unmistakable and Assuring Cue When Relieved,
She Says, by Cardul.

Atlanta, Ga.—Miss Alice Frances
Young, of 25 East Alexander Street, this city, says: "After entering womanhood, I suffered so much with womanly weakness. My back ached,
I could have, at certain times, a hot feeling that seemed to go to my head.
Even my shoulders would hurt, and it made me very dizzy and uncomfortable. When the blood would flow to my head—I suppose that was what it was—I would faint and feel so weak.
"I couldn't do my work. I had a good position, and this was surely annoying as well as embarrassing. I would usually have to go home and go to bed. I certainly suffered greatly.
"I heard of Cardul, and my mother bought it for me. It was the first and only medicine that ever did me any good for this trouble."

Discomfort, headache, dizziness, backache, tired-out feeling and other disagreeable symptoms are often signs of womanly trouble. Thousands of women who formerly suffered from these and similar ailments have found Cardul a very valuable remedy.
Cardul is composed only of pure, vegetable ingredients which have long been recognized as of medicinal value in the treatment of many diseases and disorders peculiar to women.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there is no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for cathartics, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that natural buoyancy which all should enjoy by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are known by their olive color. 15c and 35c.

IT COSTS TOO MUCH TO BE SICK

Keep Your Blood in Good Condition and You Throw Off Disease.

PAY ATTENTION
TO YOUR HEALTH

No Need To Take Chances with It — Pepto-Mangan Makes Rich, Red Blood.

When you first feel a tired, all-gone feeling and look pale, your blood is losing in quality. Weak, impoverished blood has no power to fight disease. It takes red blood to keep you well.

If you keep your blood in good condition it will fight off disease. You will not be such an easy prey to long and expensive sicknesses. With this blood you take chances every day.

There's no need doing that. You can take Pepto-Mangan and build up rich, red blood. With red blood you are able to win in the fight against prevailing diseases. Try Pepto-Mangan. It comes in tablet or liquid form. Take either kind. The tablet has the same medicinal value as the liquid. But be sure you get the genuine Pepto-Mangan. Ask for "Gude's" and be sure that the name, "Gude's Pepto-Mangan," is on the package.—Adv.

"IS GRANDEST ON EARTH," SHE SAYS

"Tanlac Proved Wonderful in My Case," Says Cincinnati Woman.

"Tanlac has proved so wonderful in my case that two of my family are now taking it with splendid results, and we all just think it's the grandest medicine ever made," declared Mrs. Mary Shannon, highly respected resident of 3112 Walworth avenue, Cincinnati, Ohio.

"My condition certainly looked hopeless until last April when I got Tanlac, but it didn't take this medicine long to put an end to my troubles. I suffered for over two years with an awful case of stomach trouble, and the indigestion and bloating were almost unbearable. After eating I had dreadful pains and a terrible depressed feeling in my stomach and at night was so restless I couldn't sleep well. I also had complications that required an operation last July, and it left me in such a weak rundown condition that I could hardly get about and was very much worried about myself.

"However, since taking Tanlac I feel like an entirely different person. For I can eat anything I want without a sign of indigestion or stomach trouble, and have already gained nine pounds in weight. I sleep good and sound every night, am feeling just fine and owe my good health entirely to Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold in Marion by The Dumble Pharmacy; in LaRue by Shiff's Pharmacy; and in Waldo by Apt Pharmacy.—Adv.

OBITUARY

McGhee—Elizabeth D., daughter of David and Elizabeth Hanger, was born near Porter, Gallia county, Ohio, February 25, 1859, and departed this life for the life triumphant from the home, No. 375 Thompson street, Marion, Ohio, February 23, 1921, being, at the time of her home-going, sixty-one years, eleven months and seven days of age. November 22, 1876, she was united in marriage with Joseph W. McGhee, of Vinton, Ohio. To them were born five children, namely, Mrs. Homer Conkle, L. H. McGhee, Mrs. W. E. Hutchinson, Mrs. Isaac Dewitt and Mrs. E. E. Springer, all of whom survive and all reside in Marion. Aside from these she leaves to mourn their loss her companion with whom she was permitted to share life's joys and its sorrows for more than forty-four years; one brother, W. E. Hanger, of Glenn, Ohio; eleven grandchildren and two great-grandchildren, and other relatives and very many friends who will greatly miss her.

In infancy she was dedicated to God by Christian parents who did their best to rear her in the "fear and admonitions of the Lord." In infancy they had her christened in acknowledgment of the fact that she belongs to God and as a pledge that they would do their best to keep and train her for a Christian life and one that would glorify God.

Women Continually Thirsty This applies to all women, regardless of caste or color. The ambitious girl striving for school honors, the overworked housewife, the shop girl, girls in offices and stores, and the society woman, all climb too high overtax their strength, and what follows? Nervous prostration, sleeplessness, headache, and the inevitable weakness and ailments peculiar to their sex soon develop, which unless checked bring on more serious conditions, and which often lead to operations. An efficient restorative for such ailments is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound which is now recognized from coast to coast as a standard remedy for woman's ills.—Adv.

In Christian service. For thirty-eight years she had been a member of the Methodist Episcopal church, and for some years had been identified with the Asbury Methodist Episcopal church, of Marion, of which Rev. J. W. Donnan is pastor. Through these years of her connection with the church she had ever given herself to honest effort to live a consistent, honest Christian life, one that God could own and bless and that He might be able to use in lifting the world up a bit closer to Himself and the life He would have it manifest. As the years have gone by, while doing her best for the prevalence of righteousness here, she was ripening for membership in the church triumphant and for following with that innumerable company that have come up through great tribulation and have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the lamb. She was a faithful and loving wife, a devoted and beautiful mother, a true friend, a faithful member of the church, anxious for the building of the kingdom of Christ here and now that as speedily as possible might be fulfilled the prayer He taught us to pray, "Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is done in heaven." She loved the Word of God and endeavored to direct her life by its precepts. She believed in the power of prayer and enjoyed her communion with God. For several years she has suffered much with an asthmatic affection, but in it all has been patient and kind and appreciative of every kindness shown her by the members of her family and by the neighbors and other friends. Then came the fatal illness which was brief and she was not for God had taken her to be with Him. She leaves to the bereft ones the richest possible legacy—the memory and abiding influence of a Christian mother. They can not bring her back but they can go to her. May it be theirs so to live that they may at last be with her and Him who loved them and gave Himself for them and hear Him say

The paths of glory lead but to the grave."

How much more comforting the words of her who wrote:

"How best the righteous when she dies."

LESSONS IN OPTOMETRY BY EARL D. CLOCK OPTOMETRIST

EYES AND EDUCATION

Almost all the knowledge that children secure comes to them by way of the eyes. That indicates the importance of having their eyes in a condition as nearly as possible normal. Parents should take nothing for granted about their children's eyes, because errors can be, and often are present without being suspected. Our services might help the success of your child.

IT H LPS SOLVE THE SERVANT PROBLEM

The Home Motor was designed primarily to fill a long felt want for a really convenient sewing motor that anyone could attach and operate on any Dressmakers, realizing the efficiency of the Home Motor, are taking them from home to home of their patrons, because with the Home Motor they can accomplish many times as much sewing and add to their number of satisfied customers.

AND WE HAVE THE ATTACHMENTS

When not being used as a sewing motor, the Home Motor can be instantly converted to perform many household duties.

All these attachments are as simple to operate as the Home Motor and can be attached instantly without trouble.

Elected at Organization Meeting Tuesday Afternoon.

CHARTER LIST WILL
NUMBER OVER 100

G. V. Paschall, Commander of McGinnis Post, Makes Plan for Community House.

Mrs. Walter S. Guthrie was elected president of the Woman's Auxiliary, of the American Legion, at its organization meeting in the auditorium of the library Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Emma Knappenberger was chosen vice president, Mrs. Edmund H. Keller, secretary, and Mrs.
Charles N. Phillips, treasurer.

Mrs. J. P. Prendergast, Mrs. J. H.
Fynnon, Mrs. H. R. Hone, Mrs. J. W.
McMurray and Mrs. G. V. Paschall were elected members of the executive committee.

Eighty attended the meeting and a sufficient number of applications were received to bring the charter-list up to 110. The constitution and by-laws, as drafted by the temporary organization, were ratified and the officers sworn in and installed by B.
T. Want, adjutant of McGinnis post.
Mrs. Guthrie announced that she would name the standing committees and announce them and the next meeting date this week.

Purposes of Auxiliary.
Gilbert V. Paschall, commander of McGinnis post, read a letter from F.
W. Guthrie, Jr., Cincinnati, national commander of the American Legion, explaining the purposes of the auxiliary. "Of all of these aims, the one for our immediate attention is the matter of a community house," Commander Paschall said in explaining the aims of McGinnis post. "Mc-Ginnis post is starting on a plan for raising funds and that plan should receive your hearty support. Any home that we obtain will naturally be your headquarters and we rely on you to do your part."

"Our first step is the promotion of a vaudeville show next. We don't ask your help on ticket sales, but we want you to boost this show in every way."

Organization of seven sales teams to work in conjunction with the teams from McGinnis post, was perfected.
